The next land, five acres and eleven toises above Bonaventure GAUDIN Sr., was the land of Dr. Philippe (Filippe) de St. Julien LACHAUSSE, the first doctor to officially service the Acadians. Dr. LACHAUSSE probably arrived in Louisiana during the 1750's. The exact date of his arrival is not known. He seems to have settled on one acre, eleven toises, Section 30, No. 46 and he acquired during the 1760's four arpents from Charles BERGERON and Isabel ARCENEUX.

The name LACHAUSSE appears on the first entry of the St. James Church Register when a LACHAUSSE acted as Godfather at a christening in 1757.

In 1766-67 Cabahanoce was still included in "Post of the Houmas". In the Spanish Archives General de Indias, Papelas de Cuba legajo 569, Document 1, October 1946, LACHAUSSE's (Chirurgien of the Acadians) salary is listed along with that of other officials. Various spellings of the name LACHAUSSE are LaCHOUSIE, LACHOSE and LACHAUSE.

Dr. LACHAUSSE was born in Picardie, France in 1727. As a young man he went to Acadie and there married Francoise GODIN (GAUDIN), seemingly the daughter of Bonaventure GODIN, Sr. (BELLEFONTAINE) born 1715 and Marguerite BERGERON born 1723 of St. Jean in Acadia. Francoise died young, either in Acadia or in Louisiana. However, the doctor and his only child of that marriage, Louise Francoise de St. Julien LACHAUSSE, arrived in Louisiana shortly after the deportation, as did Bonaventure GAUDIN.

On October 5, 1766, Dr. LACHAUSSE married again. In St. James he married Rose (Rosalie) BOURGEOIS, born 1731, widow of Joseph GRAVOIS Sr. of Acadia. Joseph Jr. (progenitor of the GRAVOIS in Louisiana) arrived at an early date at Cabahanoce, St. James with his wife and three sons, Paul (born 1751), Joseph (1753) and Jean (1755). He owned six arpents, in partnership with Francois MOREAU, above the land of Dr. LACHAUSSE, BRAUD land. Joseph GRAVOIS, Sr. died during the early 1760's.

Of Dr. LACHAUSSE's second marriage three children were born: Rosalie (born 1770) who became the wife of Bazile PREJEAN: Valentin (1771) and Philippe de St. Julien, Jr. baptized Jan. 12, 1771, and died in 1797 at the age of twenty-six.

LACHAUSSE, Jr. was married in St. James April 30, 1792 to Pelagie RICHARD, daughter of Jean M. RICHARD (born 1745) and Rosalie BOURGEOIS (born 1751). Both LACHAUSSE, Jr.'s mother and mother-in-law had the same maiden name -- Rosalie BOURGEOIS.

To the young couple, a son Charles Francois LACHAUSSE was born Nov. 27, 1797 and christened in 1798 shortly after his father's untimely death. Both sets of grandparents attended the christening, namely Dr. Philippe St. Julien LACHAUSSE and wife Rosa or Rosalie BOURGEOIS, and Juan M. RICHARD and wife Rosalie BOURGEOIS. Young widow of LACHAUSSE, Jr. then married Alexis BRAUD who became owner of the six arpent front plantation of LACHAUSSE, Jr. sec. 34, land just a little above that of Dr. LACHAUSSE. Alexis BREAUX's land became part of Welcome Plantation.

Louise Francoise de St. Julien LACHAUSSE born 1755, daughter of the doctor and his first wife Francoise GODIN, married in St. James in 1777, Joseph GRAVOIS, Jr., her step-brother (not a blood relative). Her grandfather Bonaventure GODIN signed the church register as a witness. They resided on that upper end of Dr. LACHAUSSE's plantation. After Joseph's death Louise married in 1791, in St. James, Francoise BELLAIR (BELER) a Canadian. He was the son of Louis BELLAIR and of Marie PENO.

Of the union of Louise LACHAUSSE and Joseph GRAVOIS three children were born: Joseph Simon Modeste de St. Julien GRAVOIS, born 1786 and died at the age of nine; Pierre Armant GRAVOIS, Sr. born 1784, died March 11, 1851, married Marie Erasie HOTARD about 1810. He and his family moved to Wallace and were the parents of seven children: Louise Azelice, born Nov. 10, 1833 (married Jean Baptiste and later Victorin HYMEL); Pierre Armant, Jr., born Jan. 13, 1812 (married Elise WEBRE, sister of Joseph WEBER, Sr.) Celeste (married Justin BECNEL); Armantine (married Valsin DONALDSON, ancestor of the late Dr. Pierre Armant DONALDSON of Reserve; Clementine (married Joseph FOLSE); Joseph (married Hortense ROME); and Nicholas Seraphin (married Marie M. KELLER).

The third child of Joseph GRAVOIS, Jr. and Louise LACHAUSSE was Auguste, born 1779. In 1802 he married Madeleine Genevieve BOURGEOIS, daughter of Pierre BOURGEOIS and Marie BERGERON. After Auguste died in 1815, age 35, Madeleine married Giles LeBLANC.

The GRAVOIS are great in number and trace their ancestry from Joseph GRAVOIS, Sr., of Acadia and his wife Rosalie (Rose BOURGEOIS), and from Dr. Philippe de St. Julien LACHAUSSE of France and his first wife Francoise GAUDIN (GODIN) of Acadia and from her parents Bonaventure GAUDIN, Sr. and Marguerite BERGERON of Acadia.

The name LACHAUSSE disappeared in St. James after 1797. However, the descendants of the first doctor of "la cote d'Acadie" are many as of present day on the first Acadian Coast St. James. Near the old GRAVOIS and LACHAUSSE lands of Welcome (Jamestown) two GRAVOIS families presently reside in Hymel. The Rene GRAVOIS family and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. GRAVOIS and family, a son Dewey and a daughter Claudette. Mrs. Theodore GRAVOIS was the former Audrey SIMON of Vacherie. Mr. Theodore GRAVOIS is the great grandson of Pierre Armant GRAVOIS, Jr.

Dr. LACHAUSSE died August 14, 1808 at his residence in St. James, a widower. His estate five arpents eleven toises front Sec. 30, was next owned by Jacques CANTRELLE, II. and his son Jacques CANTRELLE, III.

We find a record of Jacques LACHAUSSE who married Marie Marthe LeBLANC, Feb. 7, 1768 in St. James. By 1769 Jacques was dead and his widow resided on Lot 32, just above the St. James -Ascension Parish line, west bank of the Mississippi River. In 1769 her age was listed as twenty on the census. We do not know if Jacques was related to the Doctor.

Presently, half of the land once belonging to Dr. LACHAUSSE is listed as "Estate Pascal LeBOEUF" purchased by Pascal and Camil LeBOEUF Jan. 29, 1900 and the other half is owned mainly by Mr. Jules CHIQUET. The CHIQUET land was purchased by Mr. CHIQUET's grandfather who came from France. Mr. Jules CHIQUET, the first, had purchased from P. C. LIVRAN, Aug. 20, 1869 and his second purchase was made Nov. 27, 1869 from Edward BRAUD. Pascal and Camil LeBOEUF purchased from Israel A. VEGAS and VEGAS purchased from Marie Clara CAIRE in 1892, who had secured the property from Leon KELLER.

The LeBOEUF property is at the down the road side and was last resided in by the LeBOEUF family and the two last members of the family were Misses Mathilde and Blanche LeBOEUF, sisters. Miss Blanche died June 1962 and Miss Mathilde went to live in New Orleans with her nieces, Misses Odette and Annette Irene LEVET and their brother Robert. Odette and Annette Irene LEVET are twins, daughters of the late Regina LeBOEUF and Albert Feliciard LEVET of St. James. The LeBOEUF home in Welcome has been unoccupied since 1962.

Miss Mathilde LeBOEUF died Jan. 15, 1968, age 97, at the home of the LEVETS in New Orleans. She was the last of ten children. Her parents were Augustine Anaise VOISIN of Angers, France and Auguste LeBOEUF who was born in Louisiana. Augustine Anaise VOISIN was the daughter of Auguste VOISIN, 1812-1864, a master coppersmith in St. James, who had come to Louisiana during the 1840's. He made ornamental gates for plantation homes and metal decorations which required artistic skill. He did the metal work for the renowned 1840 St. James Catholic Church. He had been married in France to Andree Zelia BOUTREUX. Auguste VOISIN's parents were Tousant VOISIN and Lencadie AUBRY of France. Leocadie was the daughter of Captain Charles Philippe AUBRY, Governor of Louisiana.

The patriarch in Louisiana of the LeBOEUFs was Francois Dominique LeBOEUF, born 1710 and died 1796 in St. James. A native of Europe, Francois Dominique came to Louisiana by way of Canada and settled on the "First German Coast", St. Charles Parish, during the 1740's. He was a descendant of Pierre LeBOEUF and Marie Ann LeBLOND. A land owner Francois Dominique LeBOEUF was married on July 29, 1748 to Marie Madeleine SMYTH (born about 1720), widow of the Canadian Antoine Joseph ANDERE. ANDERE died Dec. 31, 1747.

Marie Madeleine had four children with ANDERE and four with LeBOEUF. ANDERE, Jr. was born Dec. 20, 1741. Marie Ann ANDERE married Michael ARCENEUX, Jr. (ARSENOT, ARCENOT) July 11, 1752 in St. Charles Parish. Marie Madeleine ANDERE married Aug. 6, 1754 Jean ROMMEL (ROME), son of Jean ROME and Marguerite STEGER. Another daughter, Jeanne was born Oct. 14, 1739. The old Attakapas trader and French government agent of "Les Oumas," Joseph BLANPAIN acted as her Godfather. Jeanne became the wife of Pierre Andre MILLET and a daughter of that union, Marguerite married in 1789, George WEBRE, son of Jean WEBRE and of Marie Catherine TREGRE.

Michael ARCENEUX, Jr. was a Canadian, native of Cap de la Magdeleine, Eveche de Quebec. He was the son of Michael ARCENEUX, Sr. and Madeleine LAFLEUR. During the early 1760's the ARCENEUX's were in St. John the Baptist Parish and the LeBOEUF's moved from St. Charles Parish to St. John the Baptist Parish during the early 1770's. Both the ARCENEUX and the LeBOEUFs came to St. James Parish about 1780. The ARCENEUX's settled in what is now Baytree Settlement and Baytree Plantation area of Vacherie. This ARCENEUX family is not to be confused with the ARCENEUXS who came to St. James from Acadia during the early 1760's. The ARCENEUXS like the LeBOEUFs left the Vacherie area to become land owners in the Welcome and Hymel areas. One of the last ARCENEUX of the Canadian line in St. James was Marcelin. He was the husband of Modestine TASSIN who was the daughter of Bienvenu TASSIN.

The Bienvenu TASSINS owned a plantation, one arpent front, in Hymel in 1877, later that of Marcelin ARCENEUX. As of Jan. 17, 1893, we find the following TASSINS in Hymel -- Mrs. Arthur GANIER (Marie E. TASSIN); Mrs. Lott WINCHESTER (Marie Bazile TASSIN); Mrs. Joseph CONSTANT (Regina TASSIN); Willie TASSIN, all children of the late Bienvenu TASSIN and his widow Therese BAZILE. There were also minor children: Octave, Therese, Joseph, Andre, Helene and Alfonse. Their property in Hymel was sold to Marcelin ARCENEUX and wife Modestus.

When they came to St. James, Francois Dominique LeBOEUF and sons Francois Pierre Charles, Jean Francois and Charles became land owners on what had been the 1755 land grant to Louis RANSON, the Vacherie of RANSON (between Oak Allee and New Vacherie Road).

As the Misses Mathilde and Blanche LeBOEUF descended from Francois Charles Pierre LeBOEUF, born 1749, died 1795, it is fitting to trace their line:

Francois Charles Pierre LeBOEUF, 1749-1795, was the husband of Madeleine HYMELLE (IMEL, EMEL, HIMEL, HUMEL). They had the following children:

- a. Catalina, married in 1796, Gabriel ARCENEUX, son of Michael ARCENEUX, Jr. and Marie Ann ANDERE.
- b. Augustin who married Marie ARCENEUX, Jan. 10, 1812.
- c. Suzanne who became the wife, about 1800, of Jean Baptiste CANTRELLE the first, and after his death married in 1818 Louis ARCENEUX. (Louis ARCENEUX and Marie ARCENEUX were brother and sister, children of Michael ARCENEUX the Third and Marie Louise ROME).

- d. Charles Pierre who in 1802 married Marie A. FALGOUST, daughter of Louis FALGOUST and Marie ROY.
- e. Michael Augustin who resided on the East Bank of the Mississippi River in St. James.
- f. Gabriel who married Celestie ARCENEUX and after her death married Melanie ROME. (A son of Gabriel LeBOEUF and Melanie ROME, Auguste or Augustin, born Aug. 8, 1837, married Apr. 29, 1861, Augustine Anaise VOISIN of Angers, France. The couple had ten children, two of whom were the Misses Mathilde and Blanche LeBOEUF, last of the LeBOEUFs in St. James.)

Between the time Jacques CANTRELLE, Jr. and Jacques CANTRELLE the Third owned the land and the time the LeBOEUFs acquired the property in Welcome part of the land passed through several ownerships. One of the owners was Dr. Justin G. GAUTREAU. Miss Mathilde LeBOEUF assured us that the old home consists of two houses (about 1855) which were brought together and joined. This was done by Dr. GAUTREAU who occupied with his family one side while his mother and twin sister, Justine, occupied the other side - the two families could therefore be together and yet enjoy privacy.

Justine outlived the Doctor, also her mother. She lived to be very old and resided in Hymel with a niece, Mrs. Eugene Poirrier. More on Dr. GAUTREAU in notes entitled "Lands in Upper Welcome".

NOTES ON WELCOME PLANTATION

Below Sec. 34 owned by Alexis BREAUX was Sec. 31, five arpents, four toises front listed to Armand BRAUD. Armand BRAUD's land was just above that of Dr. LACHAUSSE and it, like the land of Alexis BREAUX, became part of "Welcome Plantation" which also included Sec. 35. The BROTHERS BREAUX, BRAUD, BRAUX, were early settlers and land owners in Welcome. "Know Your Name" by J. C. DOWNING says the name is derived from an ancient personal name "BERWALD" meaning "Bear Rider", "Bear Power".

Francois GANIER purchased from J. B. BERGERON, Sec. 35 (which marked the lower limits of the BERGERON lands) about 1830. This same section marked the upper limits of "Welcome Plantation" of Francois GANIER.

Francois GANIER of New Orleans was married to Heloise Gabrielle LeBOEUF on Jan. 6, 1833 in St. James. She was the daughter of Gabriel LeBOEUF and Selasie or Celasie ARCENEUX of St. James and he was the son of deceased Francois GANIER and deceased SUZANNE MARET of Angers, France. Francois and his wife were the parents of seven children:

- a. Francois, Jr. born about 1834. Did not marry. Was a soldier in the Civil War.
- b. Prosper born about 1835. Married Apr. 30, 1861, Amelie LeBOEUF, born 1842, daughter of Ursin LeBOEUF, Sr. and Fanny POIRIER. Prosper and Amelie were cousins. Son George born 1863, not married. Other children left many descendants - Miss Merle GANIER, of Fort Worth, Texas.
- c. Joseph Francois, born 1837, died 1923, in Wallace, La. Married Leonie PATRIE of Angers, France. She was born in 1847, died in Wallace, La., in 1929. The couple left many descendants (as Miss Tella Josephine ROMAN of New Orleans.)
- d. Elie married Amada MITCHEL.
- e. Jules Maurice married a cousin Louise LeBOEUF (sister of Amelie).
- f. Marie Louise married Edward NAUX.
- g. Elodie married Ernest SORIN.

Francois GANIER, Sr.'s best holdings, 13 arpents front, 80 arpents deep extended from as of present day, the Jules CHIQUET holdings to those of the WRIGHT POIRRIER-ARCENEUX families, section 36.

George, a grandson, the last Ganier in St. James, sold at Sheriff's sale, May 13, 1895, five-sevenths of the plantation, buildings, etc., to Eugene LAICHE.

Anatole MONCONDUIT acquired Sec. 31, which is presently owned by Sidney WOOD family. Sec. 34 passed on to the MONCONDUIT family and Sec. 35 to Valmont CALVEY and Jules HEARY families.

Mr. Sidney WOOD is the grandson of John Trimble WOOD, Sr. of Virginia. He resides on his estate with his wife, the former Cecile DUGAS and children Michael and Mary Lee. Jerry WOOD, son of Mr. & Mrs. Sidney WOOD and his family live on the estate in their home just above that of the Sidney WOOD family.

NOTE ON GRAVOIS:

Joseph GRAVOIS, Sr. of St. James seems to be the son of Joseph GRAVOIS who married Oct. 18, 1718, at Baubassin in Acadia and of Marie SIRE, and the grandson of Joseph GRAVOIS and Marie Reine HULETON of Port Royal, Acadia.

Joseph GRAVOIS, Jr.'s brother, Jean, married in St. James, in 1790, Vivien BOURG, daughter of Joseph BOURG, born 1735, and Marie LeBLANC, born 1734, in Acadia. Jean and Vivian moved to Bayou LaFourche. Another brother of Joseph GRAVOIS, Jr. was Paul (no information available on him).

Other children of LACHAUSSE, Jr. and Pelagie RICHARD.

Besides Charles Francois, LACHAUSSE, Jr. and Pelagie RICHARD had two other children:

- 1) Philippe de St. Julien the Third (married in Lafayette, Hortense LeBLANC and then Celeste GIROIRE), and Marcelite LACHAUSSE. Marcelite became the wife of Edward LeBLANC of St. Martinville. (see Book 9, page 106, St. James Court House.) Later she married Jean Baptiste MELANCON (see selected Acadian and Louisiana Church Records by Rt. Rev. Msgr. George Bodin).
Pelagie RICHARD had a brother, Pierre RICHARD who was born 1769. He married Constance LeBLANC, who died in 1816, age 46.

NOTE ON DR. HEINS:

Dr. John Henry Williams HEINS, artist, author, professor, son of Theodore HEINS and of Eily Baroness VON LUDWIG married in 1898, at Our Lady of Peace Church in Vacherie, Madeleine Armant SARPY (descendant of Louise de St. Julien LACHAUSSE). Dr. HEINS taught school in Vacherie. He painted the ceiling of Our Lady of Peace Church which was built during the early 1900's. The only child of Dr. HEINS and his wife was one son who died leaving no issue.

NOTE ON ARCENEUX:

Michael ARCENEUX, Jr. and Marie Ann ANDERE were married July 11, 1752 in St. Charles Parish. Among their children we find:

- a) Francois who married Ludovine BRAUX, about 1778.
- b) Gabriel who married Catalena LeBOEUF, 1796.
- c) Francoise, wife of David ROME was married in 1788. David was the son of Jean ROME and of Marguerite FRULE.
- d) Urbain, born June 26, 1774 in St. John the Baptist Parish.
- e) Michael the Third, whose wife was Marie Louise ROME. They had two children.
 1. Louis ARCENEUX, born 1796, married 1818 Suzanne LeBOEUF, widow of Jean B. Cantrelle the First.

2. Melanie who married Jean SCHEXNAYDER.
 3. Veronique who married her brother-in-law, Jean SCHEXNAYDER.
- f) Louis, baptized 1792 in St. John the Baptist Parish, died in St. James in 1814. Husband of Cesaire SCIONEUX, daughter of the Canadian, Pierre SCIONEUX and Madeleine HYMEL. Cesaire died in 1841, age 68. The children of Cesaire SCIONEUX and Louis ARCENEUX are:
1. Celena who married J. B. CANTRELL the Second in 1830.
 2. Melanie who married Jean SCHEXNAYDER.
 3. Veronique who married her brother-in-law, Jean SCHEXNAYDER.
- g) Celasie who married Gabriel LeBOEUF.

NOTE ON ARCENEUX:

The first Pierre ARCENEUX (various spellings) arrived from France to Acadia about 1650, a branch of the family settled in Canada; the ancestor of this Canadian branch was Francois, husband of Suzanne LeCOMPTE. They resided at Cap-de-la-Madaleien (1665). They had a son Michael, born 1666, who married twice, had six sons and three daughters, died 1731.

One can readily understand the eagerness of the Acadians to come to Louisiana where French was spoken and where they would probably find kin.

said to be Andrew JACKSON's youngest volunteer, he fought in the battle of New Orleans. A friend, General LAUDERDALE, was killed and, in later years, the LaPICE Plantation acquired in Welcome was named for the gallant officer.

Michael LaPICE had been married 10-18-1822, in Natchez, to Marie Louise DEMIE, also a refugee from San Domingo. They had six children. He owned three cotton plantations in Concordia. After his wife died, in 1834, Pierre Michael and family came to St. James where he died at the age of 87 in 1884.

NOTE ON ST. CLAIR

St. Clair land is shown on the first map of recognized claims as belonging to Paul HEBERT and before it was for his father Joseph HEBERT.

The Joseph HEBERT land extended all the way to the swamps without coming to a point as did neighboring lands.

The Joseph HEBERT in question may have been Joseph born 1732, husband of Anne PRYEAN. Paul, the son, was born 1770, died 1825. He was the husband of Theosite LANDRY. A daughter, Ozette, became a widow MELANCON before the age of 39.

Eloi was the last HEBERT to own land there. His wife was Marie Doralis MIRE who he married January 29th, 1827.

NOTE ON JAMES TOWN

It is believed that James Town got its name from Jacques (James) CANTRELLE the second and James the third, his son. (Section 30, No. 46.)

The CANTRELLE land was 5 arpents front and above that of Dr. Brûn6 DABOVAL and it had been acquired by the Jacques CANTRELLES from Dr. Philippe de St. Julien LACHAUSSE after his death in 1808.

Jacques CANTRELLE Jr. died about 1812 and at a later date Jacques the III and his wife, Victoire, Melanie PICOU, moved to "Valenzuela" on Bayou Lafourche.

Dr. LACHAUSSE (1727-1808) was a native of Picardy, France. As a young man he settled in Acadia and was married there to Francoise GODIN (GAUDIN) daughter of Bonarenture GODIN Sr. and Marguerite BERGERON. She was a sister of the "Gaudin Freres." Francoise died in Acadia or shortly after arriving in Louisiana. Of the union of the Dr. and Miss GODIN, one daughter, Louise LACHAUSSE was born in 1755.

Dr. LACHAUSSE married again on October 5, 1766 in St. James, Rose (Rosalie) BOURGEOIS widow of Joseph GRAVOIS Sr. of Acadia. She had three sons by GRAVOIS: Paul born 1751, Joseph Jr. born 1753, and Jean born 1755.

Dr. LACHAUSSE and his second wife were the parents of Philippe de St. Jules LACHAUSSE.

Dr. LACHAUSSE was the first official physician of the Acadians at Cabahanoce an area still listed in 1766-67 as "Post of the Houmas."

The name LACHAUSSE is found in the first existing entry of the St. James register as of 1757. Dec 86 Jan 1966

NOTE ON BARON

Pierre BARON Sr., a Canadian - 1701-1758 of "Les Oumas," 66 miles above New Orleans, on the East Bank of the Mississippi River, area Convent, Louisiana sold his plantation in 1739 to Joseph BLANPAIN, born about 1700 died 1755, a French trader and Government employee. Pierre BARON Sr. had been in St. James since 1722. He moved in 1739 with his wife and two sons to Point Coupee. Pierre BARON Sr. was the grandfather of Marguerite BARON born 1757, wife of Jean Pierre LeDOUX.

front of the cemetery which was laid out in 1854. That same year, for $10.00, Joseph STEIN and his wife Regina LECHLESTER sold to Archbishop Antoine BLANC and his successors 122 feet front on the public road, 400 feet deep. The land was parallel to that of Antoine DENEKE and on the Sotene (Sostene) ROMAN line which had become a public road leading from the river.

The present church parish was organized in 1864, having a small wooden structure in which to worship. There was another land sale in 1874 by Joseph STEIN and his wife of adjoining land where a presbytery stood. The sale was made to Joseph WEBRE who in turn sold to the Roman Catholic Church in 1875. Other acts of sale were conducted and work on the present church and rectory was started in 1892 and finished in 1895. In 1902 the church, completely free of debt, was consecrated. See newspaper write up on "The Consecration of Vacherie's Fine Church."

Our Lady of Peace Parish was organized before that of St. Philip.

Dr. John Henry William HEINS author, professor, artist, painted the exquisite murals of the church. A native of Germany he was the son of Ernest Auguste Theodore HEINS and Emily Baroness Von LUDWIG. Dr. HEINS was married in May 1898 at Our Lady of Peace Church by Rev. M. PALMER to Marie Magdeleine Armant SARPY a descendent of the first Doctor of the Acadians, Dr. Philippe de St. Julien LACHAUSSE. Marie was the daughter of Edward Louis SARPY and Marie Armantine DONALDSON. Tracing her back to the first doctor of the Acadians in St. James, we find her stemming from Dr. Philippe de St. Julien LACHAUSSE M.D. (1721 - 1808) of Picardie France and his first wife whom he married in Acadia, Francoise GODIN. Their only child, Louise Francoise de St. Julien LACHAUSSE (born 1755) married in 1777, Joseph GRAVOIS born 1753 (step brother from GRAVOIS, Sr. & Rose BOURGEOIS).

A son, Pierre Armand GRAVOIS, Sr. (1784 - 1831) married (in 1810) Marie Erosie HOTARD. Among their children Marceline ARMENTINE became the wife (1830) of Valsin DONALDSON, a daughter of the couple Armantine DONALDSON, married Edward SARPY. Marie and John HEINS, descendents of French and German nobility, (See NOTE ON OLD GRAVOIS GALGOUST HOME) lived in the old GRAVOIS, FALGOUST home. One son, an only child, John Theodore HEINS, died leaving no issue. Marie's sister, Amazalie SARPY was married in South Vacherie to Stephen AMEDEE. This couple has left descendents in Vacherie. This is most probably not a complete list but following are some names found in Colonial Vacherie days and in more recent times: ANDVINO, AMEDEE, ARCENEUX, AUBERT, ARNAUD, ARMANT, AIME, AUCOIN, ABADIE, AIDELMER - BOURGEOIS, BLANCHARD, BOURG, BROCK, BERTEAU, BRUNO, BOISDORE, BLANPAIN, BRAQUIER, BELO, BODOUIN, LeBORNE, BECNEL, BURNSIDE, BARI, BODIN, BRAZAN (from Portugal) BREAUD (various spellings) BELO, BOLTON, BROU, BARKER - CORTES, CHAMPAGNE, CHESTRAIDRE, or SCHEXNAYDER, CHASTANT, COMMANDE or COMMADDEL, CONSTANT, CHENIER, CAZENAVE - DELATTE, DUPARC, DUPAIN, DAVID, DELERY, DeMAHY, DENEKE, DEMPSTER, DONALDSON, DARENSBURG - FOLSE, FALGOUST, FOREST, FOUCAULT, FAUCHEAU, FOWLER, FREDERICK, FORTIER, FERRY - HOCKMAN (OCKMAN), HEINS, HAUTAIN, HERBERT, HIMEL (HYMEL), HUBBELL, HASS, HIDALGO, HOTARD, HAYDEL - GRAVOIS, GODIN, GISCLAIR, GRIMER, GAUDET, GRANIER, GABB, GUIDRY - KLIBERT, KROLL - JACQUELIN - LAND, LOUP, LEGENDRE, LOCOUL, De La LOIRE?, LABAT, LASSERE (from Savoy France) LeBLANC, LUGUET, LAMBERT, LeBEOUF, LAURENT, LEICHLER, LANDREAUX, LOUQUE - MILLER, MARS, MATHERNE, MILES, MURY, MOUTON, MILLET, MALLET, MARCOT, MERIC - NEAU, DeNOYAN - dated 1823 is mentioned, disclosing that Madeleine re-married to Joseph Duhon. There was no mention of a marriage to Augustin.

- p. 533 - Marguerite Dugas, born 1730, daughter of Joseph and of Marguerite Robichaud, married Jean-Baptiste Thibodeau of Chipoudy, son of Olivier and of Madeleine Melanson. (The Thibodeau genealogy shows the wife of Olivier to be Isabelle Melanson instead of Madeleine.)
- p. 534 - Marguerite Dugas, born 1742 is listed again, marrying about 1766 Jean-Baptiste Thibodeau, son of Olivier and of Madeleine Melanson.
- p. 1384 - Jean-Baptiste Forest, b. 1722, probably son of Jean-Baptiste and of Marie Celestin (it should read Madeleine Celestin), married about 1745 Marie Madeleine LeBlanc. Children: Olivier, 1746; Marguerite-Theodose, 1748; Etienne, 1751. He lived at Holy Family, and was at Ile Madame in 1750.

Added should be: Madeleine LeBlanc died at St. Servan in 1759, a widow. Olivier died 1759. Add Marie-Josephe (1752-1759).

- p. 2520 - Philippe de St. Julien Lachaussee m. 1749 Marguerite Beliveau and secondly in 1765 Rose Bergeron; third in 1770 to Marie Rosalie Bourgeois. Louise Lachaussee, born of first marriage in 1755; later on page says she was born 1752 and was of first marriage.

Lois R. deLaup believes it should read: Philippe de Saint-Julien Lachaussee m. ca. 1748-1755 Francoise Godin/Gaudin (BRDA, vol. 2, pp. 404, 405, 333, 334); second marriage ca. 1756-1760 to Marguerite Beliveau (Arsenault, vol. 4, p. 1660); third to Rose Bourgeois in 1766 (Cabanocey by Lillian Bourgeois, pp. 171, 173, 184. Page 173, census of 1769, states Philippe m. Rose Bergeron, which is an obvious error. He married Rose Bourgeois in 1766 and her children by Pierre Gravois are living with them in the 1769 census and are listed as Philippe's step-sons. He is still married to her in the census of 1777.

Children of the first marriage: Louise Francoise (BRDA, vol. 2), b. 1752 (?); child of the second marriage Pierre-Philippe (Arsenault, vol. 4, p. 1660), bapt. 1762; children of the third marriage, Rosalie (BRDA, vol. 2), b. ca. 1769; Valentine Philippe (BRDA, vol. 2 & Cabanocey), bapt. 1772.

Louise Francoise, b. 1752, married first Joseph Gravois (BRDA, vol. 2), s/o Pierre and of Rose Bourgeois of Acadia in 1777 (he was also her step-brother). She married 2) Francois Belier, son of Louis Belier and Marie Pero (?) of Canada (BRDA, vol. 2).

Rosalie, b. ca. 1769, daughter of Philippe and of Rose Bourgeois, m. Basile Prejean son of Joseph and of Marguerite Durelof New Orleans in 1792 (BRDA, vol. 2).

Valentine Philippe, bapt. 1772 of marriage of Philippe and of Rose Bourgeois married Pelagie RICHARD (BRDA, vol. 2) p. 1208 - Amand LANDRY, b. 1730, m. Madeleine LANDRY, d/o Joseph/Claire LEBLANC.

On p. 1202, it shows Jean LANDRY m. to Claire LEBLANC, with daughter Madeleine, b. 1727. Is this error, or were there two Claire LEBLANC's?

Alma B. Glaeser, 5938 Music St., New Orleans, La. 70122:

per letter from Stephen White, archivist and genealogist of Université de Moncton:

(concerning pp. 1377, 1378, 1379 of Arsenault) Jean DOIRON, first of the family to come to Acadia, was definitely married to both Marie-Anne CANOL and Marie TRAHAN. This Jean was still living in 1714; it was he who was the head of the large family at Pisiguit in 1714.

Jean DOIRON, son of Jean DOIRON and Marie-Anne CANOL, married Anne LEBLANC, daughter of André LEBLANC and Marie DUGAS about 1710. This Jean was the one at Grand Pré in 1714 with only one daughter.

According to the notes of Father Patrice Gallant, Marie-Madeleine DOIRON, first wife of Jean HEBERT, was a daughter of Louis DOIRON and Marguerite BARRIEAU.

Mrs. Glaeser wrote that the Baton Rouge Diocesan Archives erred in publishing Jean instead of Marie-Anne as deceased. She feels the above will clarify confusion for NAQUIN researchers as well as others.

Alice Lachaussee

Alice Lachaussee is an adjunct history professor, a successful potter and a stay-at-home mom for her daughter, Evelyn. Alice says her interest in history came from her family. "On vacation, Dad always took us to museums," she said. Alice said she was always interested in the way everyday people had experienced historical events. Her interest in teaching developed at an early age. "Growing up, I always wanted to be a teacher. What better thing to do with your knowledge than to share it with others," she said. Her interest in pottery began with taking a class. Four years later she is making and selling her works. "It's a tremendous creative outlet for me. It's really such a fascinating field," she said. Alice was born in New Orleans but grew up in Pascagoula where she lives today with her daughter and husband of six years, Matt.
